In case the pre-bid meeting is not held on the due date due to unavoidable reasons, it will be held on the very next day. Attending tele / e-Pre Bid meeting is mandatory. Only those firms who will attend the tele / e-Pre Bid meeting will be eligible to participate in the Tender. The bidders must forward their email ids by one day prior to the date of meeting along with inputs / queries to arcs@iitdh.ac.in . A google meet link will be shared with all those who respond within the stipulated time by the same day. No request of participation will be entertained after that. The agenda of the pre-bid meeting will be to elaborate terms & conditions of the tender and method of bid evaluation, response to the queries, clarifications and modification in the tender document (if required)
8. Performance Guarantee. The detail of performance guarantee is given at Serial 3 (e) of 'Special Terms and Conditions' under 'Contract Implementation'. Format of Performance Bank Guarantee is provided with the tender document.

SCOPE OF WORK

1. The scope of the work includes the existing Information and Communication Technology (ICT) software infrastructure at IIT Dharwad, as listed in Appendix A. It also includes any additional software as and when the requirement comes up. The additional software refers to new software developed by other teams that require support from the base software infrastructure. Since this AMC covers the base software infrastructure, the bidder will be expected to support the new software being developed with regards to base infrastructure services. As a further elaboration, the scope of this contract will require supporting any new extensions or features (including security and reliability features) in the existing base software infrastructure as required by the Institute. As an example, if a new best practice for maintaining redundancy in the system is recognized, the vendor must migrate the system to the new redundancy model. As another example, many software packages are being developed by other teams. These new software packages may require some support from the current software that comes under the scope of this tender, like LDAP-based authentication. The vendor is expected to provide support to such software development teams.

2. The services required to be performed are as follows: -

- (a) Initial Documentation- A thorough and complete documentation of the current ICT infrastructure is to be submitted to the CCS within 30 working days from the date of award of the contract.
- (b) Monitoring - The ICT software infrastructure must be continually monitored for its health, usage, performance bottlenecks, as well as security attacks.
- (c) Maintenance - On detection of an issue, the Support Service must attend to it and provide a resolution as per the Service Level Agreement terms listed in Appendix B. This also includes raising tickets with Original Equipment Manufacturers as well as Internet Service Providers. This also includes periodic backing up of configurations of various hardware and software, so as to enable a quick restore in the event of a failure.
- (d) Policy updates and feature updates - During the course of the support period, it may be found that certain functionalities require changes/updates/modifications. Extensions may be required, and new features may need to be implemented. The bidder would be required to incorporate these functionalities. Bidder shall be responsible for collation of all such enhancement requests submitted by IIT Dharwad.
- (e) Software updates - As and when new versions of the used software are available, updates will have to be done.
- (f) Periodic Documentation - Clear and complete documentation of all tasks performed is mandatory. This documentation has to be submitted to the IIT Dharwad.
- (g) Reporting - Aside from continual monitoring and responding to anomalies, the Support Service are also required to present monthly reports of the health, usage, and other pertinent information regarding the ICT infrastructure.
- (h) Support - The Support Service shall also provide usage support, regarding the various IIT Dharwad computer center services, to the members of the IIT Dharwad community.
- (i) Audit readiness - An internal or external team may seek an audit of the work being done at any point of time. The vendor must be ready to demonstrate at any time during the contract period that all contract requirements are being fulfilled and all best practices are being maintained.

3. The Service Provider shall provide reports / log of all issues raised including their current status. The frequency of these reports /log would be decided by IIT Dharwad.
4. The Service Provider has to ensure a 24x7x365 call addressing mechanism. The Service Provider will provide routine maintenance services on a regular period. The institute reserves a right to modify this periodicity of routine maintenance. The Service Provider will in addition provide maintenance as on required basis and ensure a maximum uptime.
5. The Service Provider is required to ensure that one personnel is assigned at the site to serve IIT Dharwad and should have the necessary skills to meet the listed requirements with the help of backend remote support. Further, the Service Provider will arrange to visit IIT Dharwad's site if warranted by the detected/ reported Fault.
6. In case of complaint is received from users, violation of contractual obligations and penal provisions given in this document, penalty will be Imposed as per this tender document.
7. Time to Resolve (TTR) and associated penalty. TTR is defined as the time taken to resolve the issues logged. The Severity Levels for measuring TTR shall be classified by competent authority of IIT Dharwad as High, Medium and Low on the basis of critical nature of the issue. The penalties for failing in providing permissible TTR are given below: -

Sl. No.	Permissible TTR	Penalties per Day of Delay/ per Fault/per Occasion
(a)	Within 12 hours from the call logging time-for all High Severity events.	Failing on TTR for High Severity events, Rs. 5,000/-
(b)	Within 24 hours from the time of attending the problem for all Medium Severity events.	Failing on TTR for Medium Severity events, Rs. 3,500/-
(c)	Within 36 hours from the time of attending the problem for all Low Severity events.	Failing on TTR for Low Severity events, Rs. 2,000/-

8. Uptime, Downtime and associated Penalty the Service Provider needs to maintain the uptime as follows: -
 - a) The entire software services are required to be up and running with 99.5% uptime on a monthly basis, barring scheduled and mutually agreed upon downtime. The solution once implemented and accepted by the IIT Dharwad, shall be functional with an uptime of 99.5% on 24*7*365 basis.
 - b) The required software service shall have highest possible uptime.
9. Calculation of Uptime/Downtime. "Downtime" is total minutes in a month software services were not fully functional (which can be attributable to the Service Provider). Up-time is calculated on monthly basis as: -

$$\{ \text{Total Minutes in the Month} - \text{Downtime of software services in minutes} \} \times 100 / \text{Total Minutes in a Month}$$
 - Where the total minutes in the month are calculated as (60*24* total no. of days in that particular month.)
10. Calculation of Penalty. In case, the Service Provider exceeds downtime more than 0.5% of total minutes in the month, then a penalty of 1% of Total value of work will be imposed. Such penalty will be deducted from the performance guarantee submitted against the Contract or from the bill amount that is due for payment to the Service Provider.

11. Minimum eligibility Criteria. IIT Dharwad has set up minimum eligibility criteria for the bidders. All bidders must meet following criteria before they apply for the bid. The bidders meeting the criteria must enclose their supporting documents along with the technical bid: -

Description of ICT Services within scope of the Tender Document

The following services are operational at IIT Dharwad.

1. LDAP server- OpenLDAP is used. There are totally around 700 users organized into 5 LDAP categories: students, research scholars, faculty, staff, and guests. This service is used to authenticate access to the Internet, as well as to the campus WiFi network. It is also used to authenticate access to the eduroam service.
2. LDAP support to current and future institute software services

LDAP is also used to authenticate access to other services like Moodle, bighome, gitea, and others.
3. LDAP support for SSL VPN and IPSec VPN - Some Institute members are allowed access to the internal network from outside using SSL VPN and IPSec VPN. The authentication for this is also based on the LDAP credentials.
4. Proxy to regulate Internet access -Access to the Internet is regulated through a proxy based on LDAP credentials. Internet usage has to be logged, as prescribed by the Government of India.
5. WiFi access -Access to the WiFi is using LDAP credentials. Two sets of access points are employed in different areas of the campus: CISCO and Mojo.
6. Administration of wireless network access through CISCO infrastructure
7. Radius server - A radius server is employed to enable access to the eduroam service for the Institute members.
8. Maintenance of core switch and policy updation
9. Internal and external DNS, DHCP policy administration and updation
10. Interfacing with the Firewall -The Firewall is managed by a third party. For issues related to the Internet, public IPs, external DNS, etc., it would be required to work alongside the third party.
11. Web reverse proxy server
12. In-campus cloud storage for Institute members (including faculty websites) - A QNap storage server is used to provide a cloud service to the Institute members. The software interface is bighome.
13. NTP server
14. FTP server - Many useful software resources such as Linux distributions and packages are hosted in the local FTP server. Aside from maintaining this service, the distributions and packages have to be kept up-to-date.
15. Git server - A gitea server provides software version controlling service to the Institute members.
16. Automated critical data backup service - Images of the various services have to be backed up once every week to enable quick recovery in case of a service crash.
17. Proxmox clustering of services - The services are spread across three servers. The number of servers are expected to grow. Proxmox is used to virtualize these three servers to provide separate VMs for each service.

18. Ceph-based redundancy - Redundancy is employed to respond to the failure of any hardware server by migrating the VMs to the other servers.
19. Automated service usage logging - The usage of every Institute service must be logged, and must be retrievable based on service ID, IP, LDAP ID, MAC ID, and other identifiers.
20. Server and switch monitor service and the alert service - A monitor service is used to monitor the status of the various servers and switches on campus. An alert service is configured to provide email alerts for different events in the ICT infrastructure.
21. Reactive trouble-shooting and proactive bottleneck detection
22. Institute website security certificates - SSL certificates to provide secure access to the Institute websites need to be maintained and kept up-to-date.
23. Security certificates for services like Moodle
24. Administration of storage server - A storage server is used for the various services like bighome cloud service, FTP server storage, usage logs, backing up of critical data, and others.
25. Any other ICT software that may be incorporated in the future.
26. Maintenance of security of all the ICT software infrastructure. This includes but is not limited to network attacks, denial of service, malware ransomware, viruses etc. Proactive detection and reactive responses such as isolation are necessary.
